

List of all updated sections in Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex

Section	Name	Description
1	Scope	The scope of the existing Subscriber Conditions has been summarized and now applies to both products Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex.
2	Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex products	The product descriptions for Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex have been incorporated into section 2 and updated to take account of the new situation. The option of buying the Support Plus package has been added to section 2.
2.1	Checkout All-in-One	The product description for Checkout All-in-One has been incorporated into section 2 and updated to take account of the new situation.
2.2	Checkout Flex	The product description for Checkout Flex has been incorporated into section 2 and updated to take account of the new situation.
2.3	Preconditions for product use	The preconditions for product use have now been incorporated into section 2.
2.4	Technical transfer of transactions between shoppers, acceptance partners and financial institutions	The roles of the parties' financial institutions (account-holding bank) and acquirer, as well as transaction and payment flows have been described in greater detail.
2.4.1	Checkout All-in-One	The product name for Checkout All-in-One has been incorporated into section 2.4.1 and updated to take account of the new situation.
2.4.2	Checkout Flex	The product name for Checkout Flex was incorporated into section 2.4.2 and updated to take account of the new situation.
2.5	Activation of the acceptance contracts in the back office (acceptance partner)	The description of how acceptance contracts are activated in the back office has been updated and specified in greater detail.
2.6	Compatible shop systems and terminals	The guarantee clause on ensuring compatible shop systems and terminals has been updated and PostFinance's liability has been limited.
4	Registration	The registration conditions have been updated to take account of the new acceptance partners.
4.1	Checkout All-in-One	Has now been included in section 4.
4.2	Checkout Flex	Has now been included in section 4.
9	Storage and deletion of data	The clause has been updated to take account of Checkout Backoffice.
10	Partner's obligations	Section 10 has been given a new heading and divided into two sub-sections. The content on the distribution of roles has been tightened up.
10.1	Due diligence obligations	The due diligence obligations have now been incorporated into section 10.1 and updated to take account of the new situation.
10.2	Management of acceptance partners in Checkout Backoffice	The provisions on the management of acceptance partners in Checkout Backoffice have been updated.
11	Responsibility of retailers for the Checkout Backoffice shop Internet site and business model	The retailer's responsibilities on the business model for in-store sales have been updated.
12	Liability	Limitation of liability and exclusion of liability for loss of profit. PostFinance now expressly excludes liability for loss of profit. Liability per calendar year is also limited to CHF 50,000.
13	System operation, delivery and processing	The descriptions in the clauses and delimitation of additional support have been updated by PostFinance.
14	Communication method for messages between the parties	The retailer accepts the risks of e-mail traffic and releases PostFinance from bank client confidentiality for e-mail communication related to this product.

Section	Name	Description
16	Data protection	PostFinance's obligations to provide information have been transferred to the retailer, which must notify its shoppers about PostFinance's privacy policy.
19	Termination	The termination conditions have been updated so that after conclusion of the Checkout All-in-One contract the retailer must notify both PostFinance and SnapSwap about cancellation.
22	Supplementary provisions	The product names Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex have been incorporated into the supplementary provisions for retailers without a PostFinance business account.

Supplementary provisions for retailers without a PostFinance business account

Section	Name	Description
2	Powers of attorney	The form of the power of attorney has been updated.
6	Legal and other obligations and service restrictions	The product names Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex have been updated.
7	Involvement of third parties / outsourcing of business areas	The product names Checkout All-in-One and Checkout Flex have been updated.