

Handle payments easily and securely

Payment order (PO), standing order (SO) and e-finance

Paper payment orders are geared to smaller volumes and are especially suitable for all domestic and international transfers.

For recurring payments of fixed amounts, we offer the free standing order.

Here's how the payment order works

- On the payment order form, you fill in the total amount, when it is due as well as the number of slips, confirm with your signature and send us the slips and the form in an envelope.
- We process all payments on the day we receive them and execute them on the day you specify.

Worldwide transfers to postal accounts and bank accounts

International payment orders in CHF or a foreign currency are straightforward for postal account holders in Switzerland. They reach the recipient abroad in all the usual currencies.

- With Giro International you can transfer money to a postal account or a bank account abroad. Simple, cost-effective and quick.
- With Cash International you can transfer cash to a recipient abroad who does not have a postal account or bank account. Reliable, simple and cost-effective.

The standing order is free of charge.

Standing order (SO)

With the standing order, you can deal with recurring payments such as your rent, leasing payments or transfers to other accounts. It is designed for transfers to another domestic postal account in CHF or in a foreign currency and also for worldwide transfers.

Here's how it works

- Complete the standing order form and send it to us.
- You are sent written confirmation immediately.
- The standing order is automatically transferred by us on the date you specify.
- You specify the following as required:
 - Frequency
 - Execution date
 - Execution type

Particularly simple: transfers in e-finance

Payment orders and standing orders can be handled in a single step through e-finance:

- You can conveniently record, issue and submit payment orders, standing orders and outpayment orders at any time from your computer.
- You can modify or cancel payment orders and standing orders (even after they have been submitted to PostFinance).
- You can select additional frequencies for e-finance standing orders.
- You can benefit fully from the advantages of the electronic payment order (EPO).
- You always maintain a current overview of all account transactions, incoming payments and a lot more.
- You will find a demo version at www.postfinance.ch/e-finance. You will see just how simple and reliable e-finance is.

The most cost-effective and practical solution around: handled via e-finance.
